Cleo & Cuquin

"Cleo & Cuquin" is an animated program based on the classic "Familia Telerin" cartoon. It follows the Telerin kids, Cleo and Cuquin and their friends Tete, Pelusin, Colitas, and Maripi. Together, these friends find ways to play together and use their imagination while doing so --they pretend to be astronauts, scientists, pilots, and all other manner of professions in order to see that their job gets done. "Cleo & Cuquin" is about friendship and learning how to be a good friend to those around them.

My Brother the Monster

The show follows the story of Mombou. A cute, ball-sized furry monster from outer space that gets adopted into a human family after crashing his pod on planet earth. Mombou quickly grew to be 9 feet tall, but overwhelming feelings make him shrink again. The way his mind works is inspired by kids with Asperger's Syndrome. Mombou has to learn how to be a better monster and understand how human life works. But will Earth be friendly for him too?
